

Ceremonial Turn-over of books from Move On Philippines, International to the ff:

- 1) Ugalingan Elem. School, Carmen, North Cotabato;
- 2) Matalam Institute of Science & Technology, Matalam, North Cotabato;
- 3) Kibayao Elem. School, Carmen, North Cotabato;
- 4) Manarapan Elem. School, Carmen, North Cotabato;
- 5) General Luna Elementary School, Carmen, North Cotabato;
- 6) Salapungan Day Care Center, Kabacan, North Cotabato;
- and 7) Gil Manalo Annex National High School, Kabacan, North Cotabato.

Done at College of Arts and Sciences Bldg (CAS), USM, Kabacan, Cotabato; November 16, 2007

Miss Tessie Lerios, Assitant DEAN of College of Arts and Science (CAS), University of Southern Mindanao, commends the initiatives and efforts of Move On Philippines during the ceremonial turnover of books.

Miss Pacita A. Sanchez, Head Teacher of Ugalingan Elementary School, receives the books from Move On Phils.

Mr. Alih Bato of MinLand (left) & Miss Tessie Lerios proudly show one of the books. Miss Noeme D. Dalid, Day Care Teacher (2nd from R) Ms. Joy of DSWD Kabacan (right) joins in the presentation.

Mr. Pendatun A. Saon (second from right), Head Teacher of Manarapan ES, receives some of the books donated by Move On Phils. Some teachers of CAS joined them for picture taking.

Miss Daisy D. Ponce (second from right), Head Teacher of Gen. Luna ES, and Mr. Saon of Manarapan ES, are ready take the boxes of books to their schools. Alih and USM-CAS teachers look on.

Turn-over of MOP books to Dolo Elementary School at Barangay Dolo, Bansalan Davao Del Sur
January 7, 2008

The Local Government Unit of Bansalan, Davao del Sur, headed by Hon. Mayor Edwin G. Reyes (left) and Ms. Leila Rispens-Noel (right) of the Association of Bansalenos Worldwide (ABW) inspect & arrange the educational materials before the turnover.

EJ introduces MOP and reads the transmittal letter. Hon. Edwin G. Reyes (in white shirt) delivered an inspiring message and expressed his gratitude and appreciation to Move On Philippines, MinLand and ABW as he commended their unselfish efforts.

Ms. Rispens-Noel (in stripes) of the ABW commends Move On Philippines and MinLand. She added that the books will greatly help the pupils especially the bright but needy scholars that ABW is supporting.

Mayor Edwin G. Reyes of Bansalan Davao Del Sur, shared the honors in turning over the educational materials donated by MOP to Miss Jane Bardonido, Principal of Dolo Elementary School.

Miss Jane Bardonido (center) signs the transmittal letter as Arvin (right) assists.

Pupils of Dolo ES together with their Teachers pose for posterity. Arvin (in red shirt) joins them.

Turn-over of MOP books to Dolo Elementary School at Barangay Dolo, Bansalan Davao Del Sur
January 7, 2008

Lalay Rispens-Noel (in stripes), one of the prime movers of Association of Bansalenos Worldwide, is impressed at the grade four pupils who were able to read the book correctly.

Grade Four pupils searched through the piles of books and thereafter scanned and read them.

Teachers and pupils from Dolo Elementary School are happy and thankful with their newly acquired reference materials as well as "rare" school supplies.

Smiling faces of pupils abound when they were allowed to inspect the donations after the turnover.