

Turn-over of books from Move On Philippines during the 2nd People's Organizations Festival held at Guadalupe Formation Center, Balindog, Kidapawan City
December 4-6, 2007

Miss Adele Nayal of ICP-IRP gives an overview of the previous PO Festival.

Indigenous Peoples from Bukidnon (Manobo) render indigenous dance and music to open the PO Festival.

Miss Yvonne Saliling (right), Festival Facilitator, hands over the books from Move On Philippines to PO representatives.

Miss Yvonne Saliling and Mr. Nords Mamangkas, MinLand Community Development Officer, call the book recipients to the stage.

Mr. Alih Bato (left), MinLand CDO, hands over some of the books to a representative of youth organization in the festival

Dictionary and other reference books were heartily received by the ten (10) PO presenters of the festival.

Turn-over of books from Move On Philippines during the 2nd People's Organizations Festival held at Guadalupe Formation Center, Balindog, Kidapawan City December 4-6, 2007

Ms. Annie Napao (left), Chairperson of Alegria Diversified Organic Farmers Association or ADOFA, receives a bundle of books from MOP.

Miss Julieta Danggaw (left), Chairperson of Tri-People Youth Organization, receives the books from MOP handed over by Alih (right).

The widest smiles register in the faces of recipients.

The Muse and Prince Charming of the festival's solidarity night also received books.

Datu Wilmar Ampuan of NATABUKFED proudly carries the addition to their small "library."

The books donated by MOP will surely become one of the treasured possessions of PO's. Some even shared that it is the first time for them to own beautiful books.

Turn-over of books from Move On Philippines during the 2nd People's Organizations Festival held at Guadalupe Formation Center, Balindog, Kidapawan City
December 4-6, 2007

About 40 People's Organizations received bundles of books from Move On Philippines. It's amazing how a few books are able to help bring about hope and encouragement to people.

G7 – Youth Organizations from Pikit, North Cotabato excitedly receive bundles of books