The said reference materials and equipment were turned-over to Bula National School of Fisheries on June 21, 2007 during the short program held at the computer laboratory of the school. It was attended by: Mr. Wilhelm D. Sales, Officer-in-Charge of BNSF; Mr. Martiniano L. Magdolot, Executive Director-Mahintana Foundation, Inc.; Mr. Romeo S. Dela Rosa, President-PTCA; Mr. Jury Esmeralda, President-Supreme Student Government (SSG); Ms. Melanie Sales, School Librarian; students and some members of the faculty and Staff.

On the message given by Mr. Magdolot, he conveyed that Move on Philippines and the Filipino people abroad have been so generous in extending assistance and help to qualified organizations and schools like Bula National School of Fisheries by donating books and other reference materials. He further said that the books and laptops provided to the school can help broaden the perspective and enhance the learning outcome of the students and the teachers of the school.

In behalf of the BNSF faculty and staff, Mr. Sales, OIC-BNSF had extended his thanks to Move on Philippines for another set of reference materials donated to the school this year. He said that those books would really be of great help in nourishing the minds of the students and in attaining the mission and vision of the school which is to produce quality, disciplined and morally upright students. Likewise, he thanked Mahintana Foundation, Inc. for facilitating in the turn-over of the donated books and computer units to their school.

Mr. Esmeralda, President-SSG also gave his message in behalf of the students that they will make use of the books especially the set of encyclopedia when they do research works and assignments. Mr. Dela Rosa, the PTCA President had thanked Move on Philippines for having the good heart in helping the communities especially the students of the school who are hopeful to succeed in their lives.

The 49 books and laptops then were turned-over by Mr. Martiniano L. Magdolot to the school represented by Mr. Sales, the PTCA President and SSG President. Thereafter, the students scanned the pages of the books and said that it will really be read by other students of the school. Furthermore, the donated books and laptops will be place in the library and be made available for all the students, faculty and staff of the school.
